A community growing since 1994

The founding principles of the APC Overnight network are still true within our network activity today. We are a network where support for customers is local, accessible and personal.

We believe there is always a solution for a customer; that care is key in all we do, and that through partnership and working together, excellent service can be achieved.

Every customer can depend on our passionate and committed teams to provide the best service every time.

Every delivery, every collection and every phone call is easy with APC.

Journey of your parcel

“Timed services that you can rely on”

When Specialist Handling is needed

APC Overnight's specialist experience lies in transporting products for niche markets that many other UK parcel carriers refuse or are reluctant to carry, such as perishable products, flowers, liquids and live fish.

Our ability to deliver these delicate products safely is testament to the care and attention we take to ensure we handle every single item with the highest level of care.

Fragile Service

- Fragile items are placed into separate cages to ensure minimal handling and limit the opportunity for damage.
- Items are sorted separately and in a dedicated area of our hub. They are sorted by hand - no automated machinery is used.
- We take extra care to ensure that items are handled “the right way up”.

Liquid Service

- APC has a great reputation for carrying liquids. We ensure that these items are placed into separate cages to reduce handling.
- We have a segregated area within our National Sortation Centre for liquids, with staff fully trained specifically to handle this type of item.
- All items on this service are sorted by hand-no automated machinery is used. We work hard to eliminate damage occurring, and readily work with customers to improve item packaging.

Security Service

- High-value, treasured items that require extra security measures during sortation and transport are sealed within separate cages.
- The items are hand-sorted under high definition CCTV in a designated area within our hub.
- No liquid products are allowed into this area to ensure security items are protected.

Your customer is in control

Keeping in touch with an eCard

Has your customer missed their delivery?
Not a problem!

If your customer is not at the address, our delivery driver will always post a calling card to advise a delivery attempt has been made.

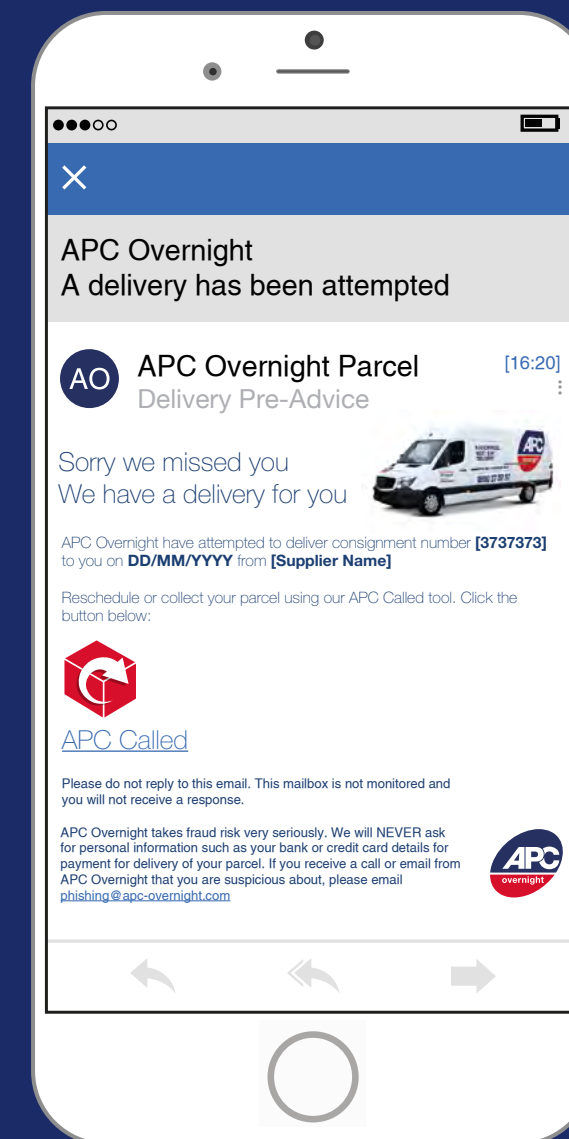

The calling card provides your customer with the local APC member depot contact details along with options to rearrange or collect their parcel.

Our delivery driver also captures a picture and the GPS co-ordinates of the address that has been left with a calling card.

We know difficulties can occur if the customer does not spot the calling card, so we have introduced a solution where we can email your customer, real-time, an eCard. The eCard provides a direct link to our online APC Called Tool.

Your local depot will set up the eCard functionality upon request.

So what is our online APC CALLED tool?

We know how important it is to give your customers choice and control over the redelivery of their item.

Our online APC Called tool allows your customer to choose the day they want the redelivery to be made, or give the option to collect directly from our APC member depot all through a touch of a button.

All actioned quickly and easily using APC Called.

“We put you and your customers at the heart of our network”

Customer Service

We are proud to be one of the very few UK parcel carriers who have local customer service - we do not believe in national call centres that treat customers simply as phone calls.

We do not believe in having a service offering that puts cost-efficiency first and the customer second - we are totally committed to giving our customers the best service experience.

In each of our depots, we have people who are from the local area, working in their local business, who take time and care to get to know and understand customers directly.

Genuine business relationships are formed.

Our depot teams demonstrate a real can do attitude and offer that personal touch. We will never shy away from conversation and are always just a phone call away.

Starting out with APC

It's easy- let us know that you are interested and we will do the rest. There are several ways to get in touch with us and we will then begin the start of what we intend to be a rewarding and valued business relationship for you.

Our depot team will talk to you about your requirements in detail and then provide you with your tailored proposal. We will make sure we have covered everything needed to give you and your customers great service.
